

I am concerned about the LPFM changes. I do not want to lose the Radio station I listen to out of Fort Smith. 88.1. It is the only radio station in my area that plays the type of Christian music I like. There are other Christian radio stations here, but they tend to be more traditional music.